

Introduction to Computing I

Terms, Lesson 5

Refer to page 89 in your textbook. Locate the Vocabulary Review terms in the blue box. Write the correct term in the statements below:

1. A horizontal or vertical bar that allows the user to control which part of a document shows in the window's frame is called a _____.
2. A text interface that includes drop down options and gives the user choices to execute commands is called a _____.
3. The first screen you see when the operating system is running is the _____.
4. A rectangular area of the screen, used to display a program, data, or other information is called a _____.
5. The horizontal bar at the bottom of the screen that contains the start button is called the _____.
6. _____ are represented as icons that look like a traditional manila folder and are used for organizing your files.
7. Clicking the _____ button will cause the window to disappear from the screen and be displayed as a button on the taskbar. Clicking the _____ button will cause the window to fill the entire screen. Clicking the _____ button will return a window to its previous size.
8. The _____ is located below the menu bar in a window and contains buttons to perform commonly used tasks.
9. A device, such as a mouse, that allows users to select objects and commands is called a _____.
10. _____ are small pictures that represent a folder, file, command, or some other computer function.
11. The bar at the very top of a window is the _____.
12. The _____ is directly below the title bar in a window and contains commands that reveal menus when clicked.